

Altair Akhmetov
& Margulan Zhumagali

The Case of Kazakhstan

PROJECTIFICATION OF SOCIETY: THE CASE OF KAZAKHSTAN

THE PRACTICAL VALUE OF THE BOOK

- 01 Projectification as a trend is the popularization and application of projects in various fields.
- 02 The purpose of the book series is to highlight the experience of 5 countries (Kazakhstan, Germany, China, South Africa, Croatia).
- 03 Kazakhstan's experience is an analysis of problems and solutions, a comparative approach.
- 04 For top managers – ideas for effective project management.
- 05 A wide audience is useful for professionals, consultants and society.

Authors of the book

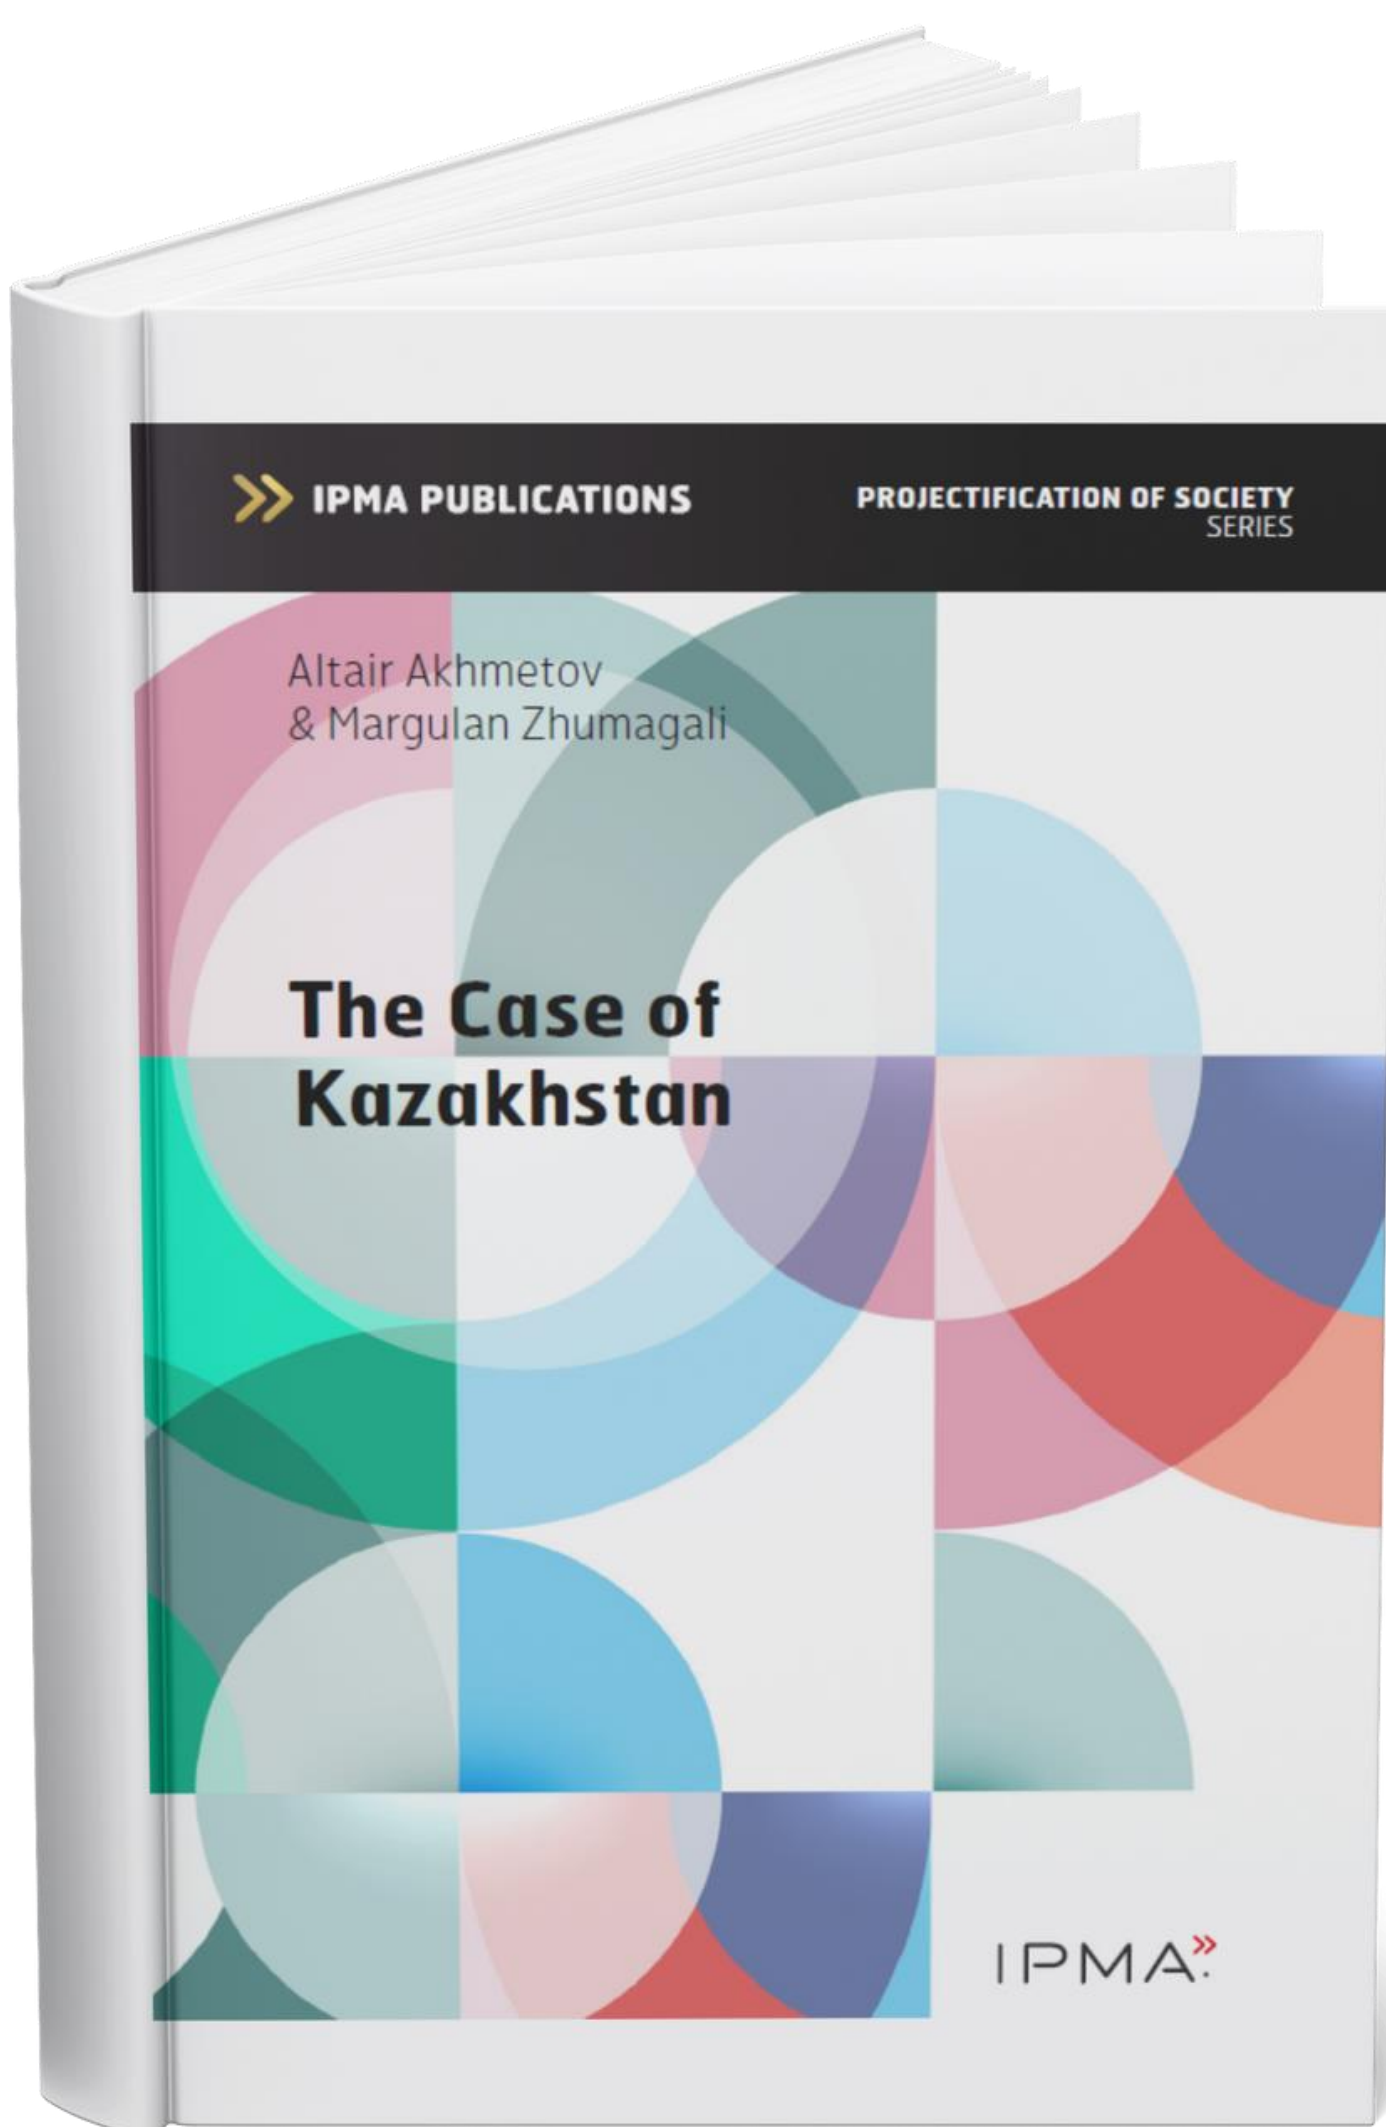

ALTAIR AKHMETOV

MARGULAN ZHUMAGALI

Experts in government, corporate, project and process management

Project management in:

- government agencies
- state-owned organizations
- business
- education
- civil society

In each section:

- challenges
- solutions
- recommendations
- lessons learned

International recognition

Gold Winner 2023

Presidential Administration

Gold Winner 2021

Academy of Public Administration under the President

Gold Winner 2017

Nazarbayev University

National recognition

Gold Winner 2023

PMO of Zhambyl region Local Government Administration

Gold Winner 2023

«Air Astana» JSC

Gold Winner 2022

«KazMunayGas» JSC

Gold Winner 2023

«Magzhan and K» LLP

Gold Winner 2023

Public Fund «Mother's Home»

Gold Winner 2023

Association «International Academy of Negotiations»

2023

The Project Team of Presidential Administration of the Republic of Kazakhstan, Kazakhstan

participating in the IPMA Global Project Excellence Award 2023 competition with the project

Phase 1 of the Programme for Implementing Project Management in Public Administration has been awarded the status of:

IPMA Global Project Excellence Award 2023
Small-/Medium-sized Projects

Gold Winner

in the category Change Management / Product Development / Marketing

On the basis of the project management performance, the project team has proven to the Assessors that its project management approach and results are of a world class level and an excellent example to other project teams working in international project management.

IPMA Executive Board, Assessors and Judges
IPMA Global Project Excellence Award 2023

José E. Reyes IPMA-A IPMA Vice President
Marketing & Awards

Prokhorov Damarhai
IPMA Global Small-/Medium-sized
Projects Awards Coordinator

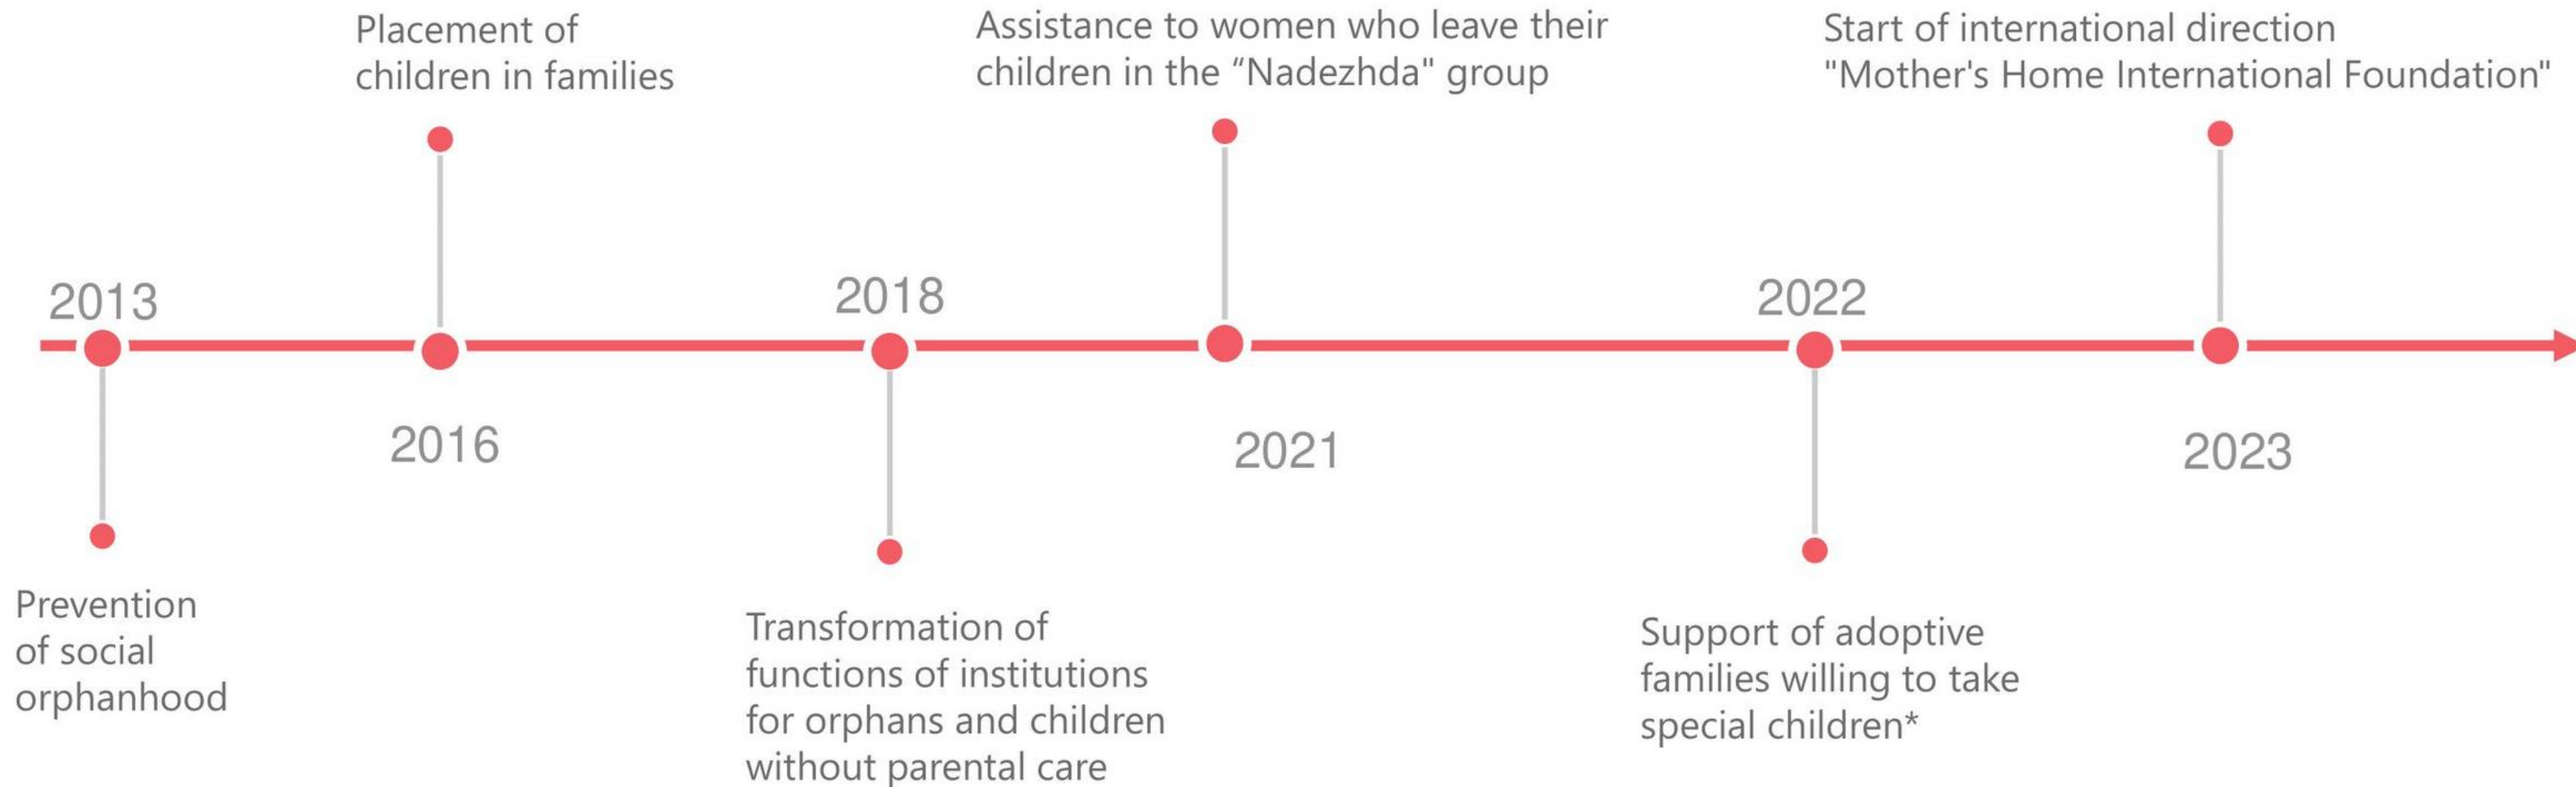

«ANA UYI»

Public Foundation

OUR GOAL - To completely prevent abandonment of newborns to reduce the number of children in children's residential institutions

Activity and development of new directions help to achieve the main goal of the Foundation – eradication of social orphanhood in Kazakhstan

Funding is provided by Kazakhstani businessmen

All services are provided to citizens of the Republic of Kazakhstan for free

pilot rehabilitation program*

Results of socialization of the mentees

Main approaches and results of socialization*

2 210

women
are employed

1 183

women have taken
professional course

882

women
received SMC*

2 173

documents recovered

Recovering and strengthening social relationships

- ✓ Attracting the social environment of the family
- ✓ Recovery of basic family functions
- ✓ Informing about the types of state social support and services

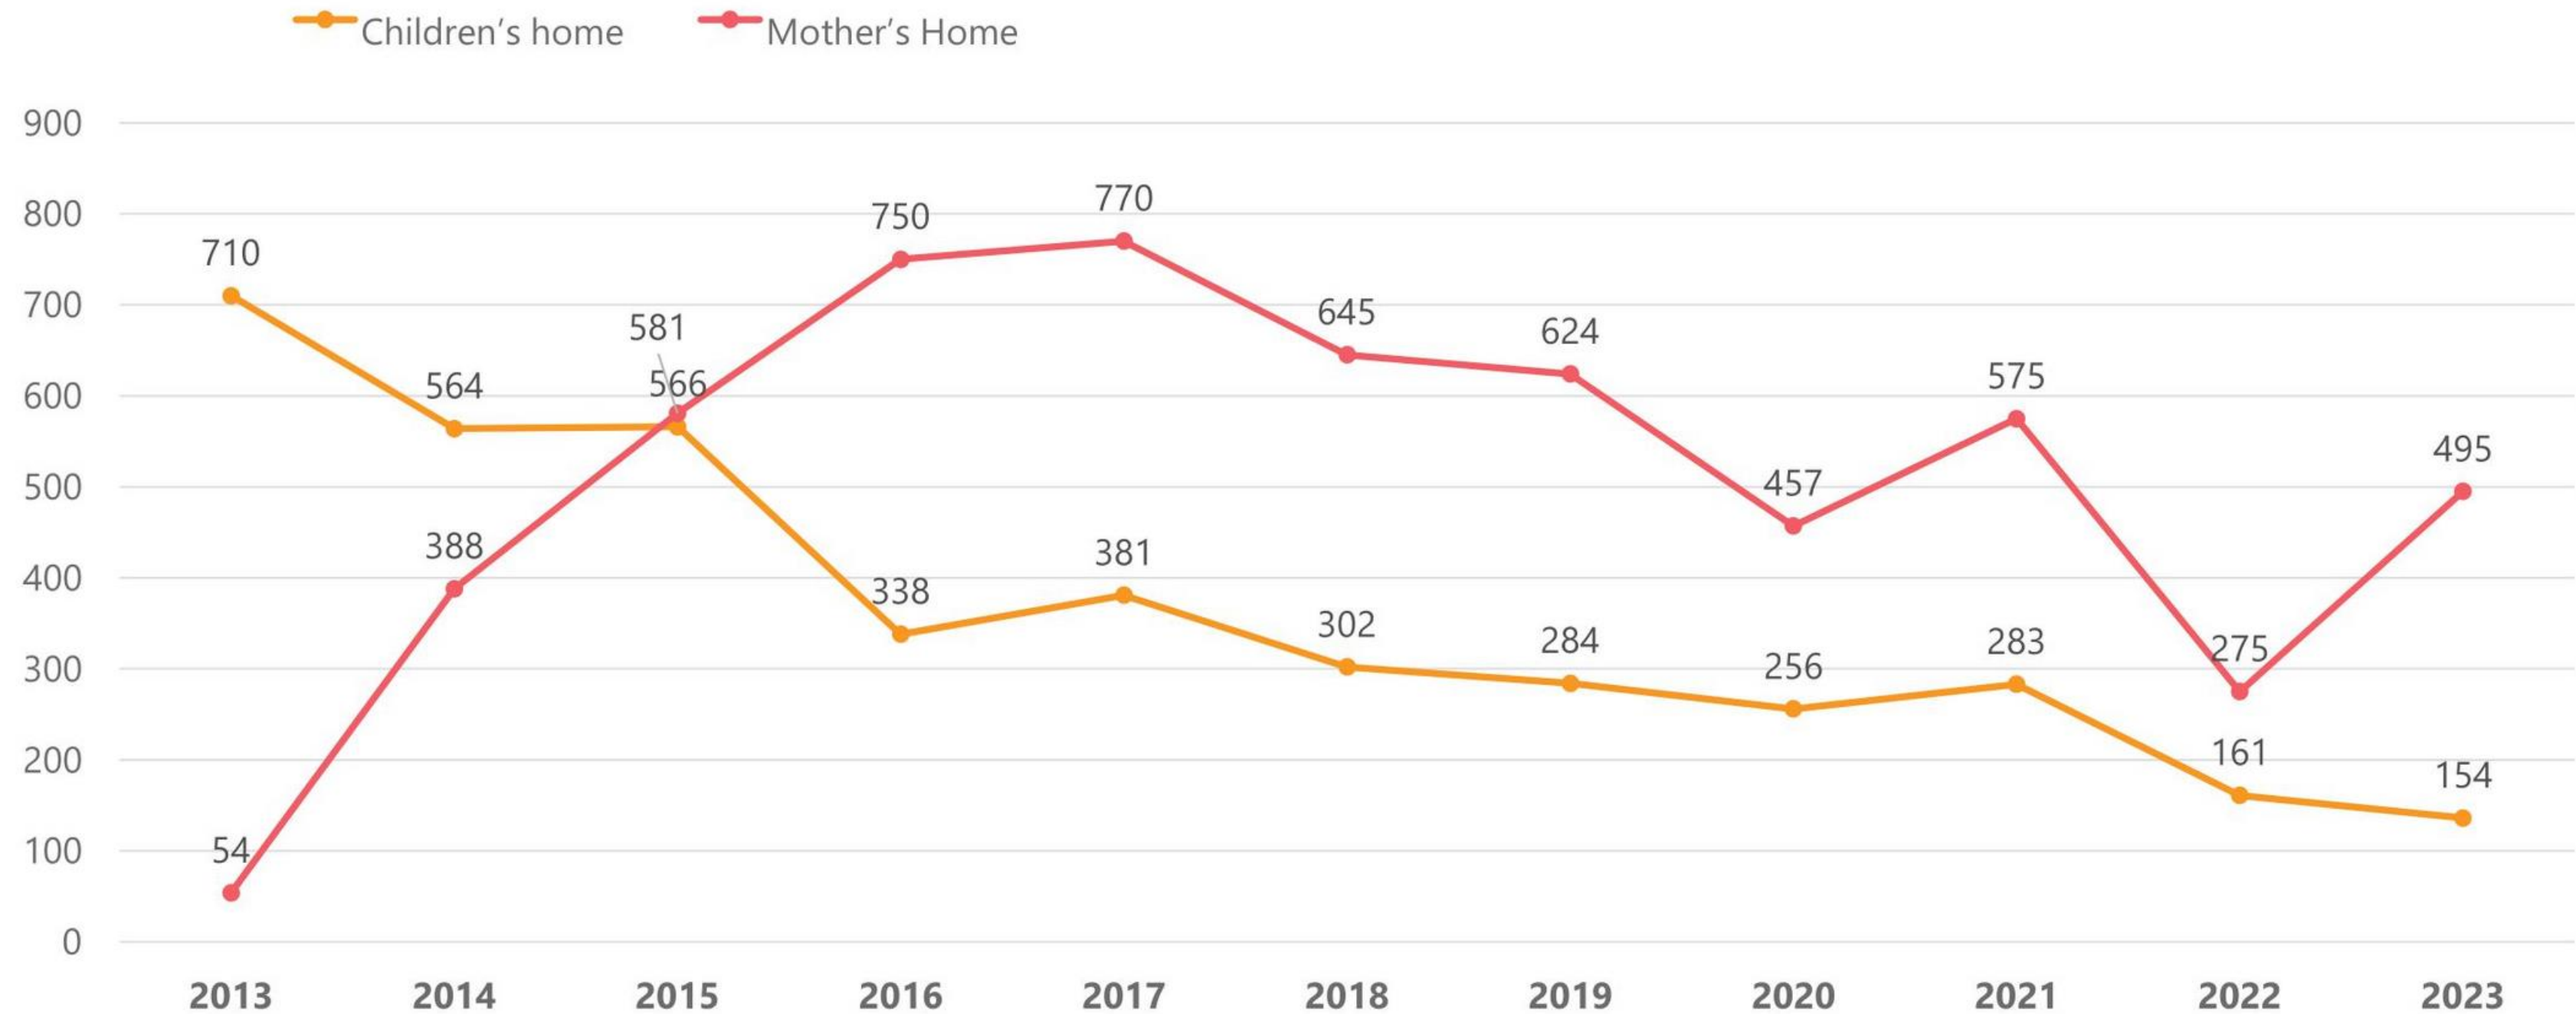

Legal assistance

- ✓ Establishment of paternity
- ✓ Recovery of alimony
- ✓ Registration of targeted social assistance

*as at 01.05.2024, special medical care

“Mother’s Home” project prevents 67% of cases of child abandonment and children’s homes placements

Since 2014, active promotion of the project has begun in all regions of Kazakhstan

MOTHER'S HOME INTERNATIONAL FOUNDATION (MHIF) international direction

► 10-year history of the Foundation inspired the global MHIF initiative.

There are now "Mother's Homes" in:

21

cities in Kazakhstan

3

homes in Uzbekistan

1

home in Malaysia

1

home in Ukraine

With more opening soon in:

Türkiye

Columbia

